Redburn Street

London, SW3

Arranged over four spacious floors, a lovely classic Chelsea terraced townhouse. The property has been refurbished throughout and well maintained. There is a large reception room on the ground with high ceilings and original features along with beautiful wooden floors. Of particular note is the large and bright family kitchen/breakfast room with french doors leading out onto a private terrace. The property boasts four double bedrooms including a master en-suite along with a further study/guest bedroom.

Redburn Street runs parallel to the south of Kings Road running west from Tedworth Square to Flood Street.

Both the Kings Road and Sloane Square Underground station along with the open spaces of Burton Court are a mere few minutes walk away.
